

ANDREW LLOYD WEBBER'S

BAD CINDERella

AN UNCONVENTIONAL FAIRY TALE

BROADWAY PREVIEWS BEGIN FEBRUARY 17, 2023

From ANDREW LLOYD WEBBER comes “a big, colorful, fun fairy-tale rewrite” (The New York Times) featuring an original story and book by Oscar®-winning writer Emerald Fennell (the film Promising Young Woman, tv’s “Killing Eve”) and lyrics by Tony Award® winner David Zippel (City of Angels).

In the exceptionally beautiful kingdom of Belleville, the fields are idyllic, the prince is charming, and the townsfolk are ravishing. Only one intractable peasant stands in the way of sheer perfection: Cinderella. To the flawless citizens and sovereigns of Belleville, this damsel IS the distress.

Cinderella’s only friend in Belleville is the equally overlooked Prince Sebastian. When his older brother, Prince Charming, mysteriously disappears, he is thrust into the spotlight. As the new royal heir, Prince Sebastian must choose a bride at the ball and live unhappily ever after. With the prospect of losing the only person she’s ever cared for to the crown, Cinderella pays a visit to the Godmother, who can solve any problem...for a price.

Starring Linedy Genao (On Your Feet! understudy to Gloria Estefan; Dear Evan Hansen) as Cinderella and featuring an original story and book by Oscar®-winning writer Emerald Fennell (the film Promising Young Woman, tv’s “Killing Eve”) and lyrics by Tony Award® winner David Zippel (City of Angels), Cinderella is directed by Laurence Connor (Les Misérables, School of Rock) and choreographed by JoAnn M. Hunter (School of Rock, Disaster!).

The Telegraph calls it “a magical musical with a progressive message, brilliantly witty lyrics, and exuberant numbers—one of Andrew Lloyd Webber’s best.”
