“A PLAY WITH GREAT HEART THAT DEMANDS TO BE SEEN”

–Londonist

Following a critically acclaimed run in London, this vibrant and timely production of Arthur Miller’s DEATH OF A SALESMAN arrives on Broadway with Olivier Award® nominee and Tony Award® winner Wendell Pierce (Death of a Salesman, Clybourne Park) and Olivier Award® winner and Tony nominee Sharon D Clarke (Death of a Salesman; Caroline, or Change) reprising their roles as Willy and Linda Loman.

Joining them will be Tony winner André De Shields (Hadestown) as Ben Loman, Khris Davis (Atlanta) as Biff Loman and McKinley Belcher III (A Soldier’s Play) as Happy Loman. Olivier winner Miranda Cromwell directs this compelling production from the perspective of an African-American family.

Set in 1940s New York, the story focuses on a traveling salesman and his family as they are caught up in the pressures and delusions of the perfect business and family life. “This powerful interpretation of Miller’s classic drama illuminates the dark underbelly of the American Dream and its elusive promise of equality and opportunity for all.”

Don’t miss this brilliantly reimagined masterpiece The New York Times calls “a vital, electrifying, and compulsively watchable revival.”
