

GETTIN' THE BAND BACK TOGETHER

THE NEW MUSICAL COMEDY FOR ANYONE WHO DREAMS OF A SECOND SHOT AT THEIR FIRST LOVE

Mitch Papadopolous always dreamed about being the next Bruce Springsteen, but he chose security over stardom and left those daydreams behind for a day job. He thought he had everything – a great banking job and apartment – until his 40th birthday when he received a pink slip and had to move back in with his mother in New Jersey. But when his high school arch nemesis (with a 20-year-old grudge and a tangerine spray tan) threatens to foreclose on their house, this big-shot banker must save his small-town home the only way he can...by winning The Battle of the Bands.

Mitch dusts off his guitar, gathers his old gang (the math teacher who isn't good at math, the Irish cop who dreams about being on Broadway, the dermatologist who can't get a date, and a 16-year-old Jewish rapper who makes Vanilla Ice look cool), and sets out to win the battle...and maybe even win back the high school sweetheart he left behind...proving it's never too late to give your dreams one last shot.

“Funny, exciting, and OH, SO ENTERTAINING!”
