

Two renowned stars return to Broadway—Tony Award® and Emmy winners Laurie Metcalf (Three Tall Women; A Doll's House, Part 2; TV's "Roseanne") and John Lithgow (Sweet Smell of Success; Dirty Rotten Scoundrels; TV's "3rd Rock from the Sun")—in this new play written by Tony nominee Lucas Hnath (A Doll's House, Part 2) and directed by Tony winner Joe Mantello (Three Tall Women; The Humans; Assassins).

Behind closed doors in New Hampshire, a former First Lady desperately tries to save her troubled 2008 presidential campaign, as her husband and her campaign manager are at odds with each other. But don't be fooled – anything can happen in a world of endless possibilities. HILLARY AND CLINTON explores the "politics of marriage, gender roles, and the limitations of experience in this profound and timely look at an American dynasty in crisis."
