

GLEND A JACKSON

WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE'S [KING LEAR]

GLEND A JACKSON IS KING LEAR

Glenda Jackson, one of the greatest actresses of all time, returns to Broadway as KING LEAR. The celebrated stage, film and television actress, not to mention former Member of Parliament, is a Tony Award® (Three Tall Women) and two-time Academy Award® winner.

One of Shakespeare's most well-known tragedies, the play deals with an aging king who decides to divide his kingdom among his three daughters, resulting in disastrous consequences.

Among the cast joining "the best actress alive" (The Guardian) are Tony winner Jayne Houdyshell (The Humans) and Elizabeth Marvel (Other Desert Cities). This all-new production of KING LEAR, directed by Tony winner Sam Gold (Fun Home; A Doll's House Part 2), features an original score by legendary composer and three-time Academy Award® nominee Philip Glass.

"Glenda Jackson is the mightiest of them all."

Ben Brantley, The New York Times

See her in the mightiest role of all time—KING LEAR

CORT THEATRE
138 West 48th Street
New York, NY 10036

Groups 10+
Opened April 4, 2019
Limited Engagement through July 7, 2019

GreatWhiteWay.com
(212) 757-9117 | (888) 517-0112