

MOTHER PLAY

Pulitzer Prize winner and Tony Award nominee Paula Vogel (How I Learned to Drive; Indecent) has written a biting and humorously honest new play about the hold our family has over us and the surprises we find when we unpack the past.

It's 1962, just outside of D.C., and the matriarch of the family is managing her teenage son and daughter's move into a new apartment. She has strong ideas about what her children need to do and be to succeed, and woe be the child who finds his or her own path. Bolstered by gin and cigarettes, the family endures — or survives — the changing world around them.

Starring Tony Award®, Oscar and Emmy winner Jessica Lange (A Long Day's Journey Into Night; A Streetcar Named Desire; Tootsie; Sweet Dreams; TV's "Feud: Bette and Joan"), Emmy winner Jim Parsons (A Man of No Importance; An Act of God; Harvey; The Boys in the Band, TV's "Big Bang Theory") and Tony winner Celia Keenan-Bolger (The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee; To Kill a Mockingbird; Glass Menagerie; TV's "The Gilded Age"), MOTHER PLAY combines imaginative theatricality, surreal farce, and profound tenderness, forming a beautiful rollercoaster ride revealing timeless truths of love, family, and forgiveness.
