BROADWAY'S FASTEST, FLIRTIEST AND FRISKIEST NEW COMEDY!

Tony Award® winner and Emmy® nominee Jason Alexander (Seinfeld) directs Emmy® winner Eric McCormack (Will & Grace), Tony nominee Laura Bell Bundy (Legally Blonde - The Musical), Tony nominee Lilli Cooper (Tootsie, SpongeBob SquarePants), Nehal Joshi (School of Rock, The Phantom of the Opera), Alex Moffat (Saturday Night Live), and Dana Steingold (Beetlejuice - The Musical) in this uproarious new American comedy by Sandy Rustin.

The hilarious farce takes place in the English countryside in 1923. Inspired by the works of Noël Coward, this saga of sex, betrayal and love begins when a woman decides to expose her affair to both her husband and to her lover's wife. The true meaning of fate, identity and love and marriage are called into question as a startling and sidesplitting web of secrets unravels in this outrageous – potentially murderous – romantic comedy.
